

Popular bagel shop opening second Birmingham location

Updated Jan 31; Posted Jan 31

A new location of Crestline Bagel Co. will open on Tuesday, Feb. 6, 2018, at 4117 Crosshaven Drive in the Cahaba Heights area of Vestavia Hills, Ala. (Photo courtesy of Crestline Bagel Co.)

By Bob Carlton, bcarlton@al.com

Mountain Brook's Crestline Bagel Co. will open its second metro Birmingham location on Tuesday, Feb. 6, the company announced in a media alert today.

The newest Crestline Bagel Co. shop will be in a new retail center on Crosshaven Drive in Cahaba Heights. The address is 4117 Crosshaven Drive.

Hours will be 6 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

The menu features a selection of New York-style bagels, including plain, multi-grain, cinnamon-raisin, blueberry, sesame seed, poppy seed, chocolate chip, sun-dried tomato, jalapeno, onion, garlic, whole wheat and pumpernickel, as well as seasonal selections.

In addition to bagels, the breakfast menu includes breakfast sandwiches, pastries and muffins, and the lunch menu features signature sandwiches and wraps.

The original Crestline Bagel Co. opened more than 20 years ago at 66 Church St. in Mountain Brook's Crestline Village and is owned and operated by Jennifer and Ralph Yarbrough.

For more information, to www.crestlinebagel.com.